If makeup were men, you'd be considered a tramp given how much you've gotten around from brand to brand.

Become a one label lady after checking out the new 2nd Street digs of Rae Cosmetics. The Austin-born line of mineral makeup created by blonde beauty Rochelle Rae, pictured below, has a pretty new space for the blushes and brushes to call home. Step into the well-lit beauty boutique - complete with six makeup stations, turquoise cabinets and a glitter drum kit in the window - and shop for brand new must-haves like color-dense waterproof lip liners in fun shades like Bordeaux and super blendable Brow Wow! powders, used for in-store brow services. And after years in the biz, her climate control mineral tints, bronzers and powders are still the best sellers because of their perspiration-resistant base.

Monogamy doesn't have to feel monotone.
